

TALES FROM THE PEPPER POT
by MacHill... PART TWO

Local boy Bobby appeared before they landed on the moon in need of a rocket. He'd seen one at the cinema Tall, straight pointing into Space. Then he saw the Pepper Pot.

She enjoyed the attention throwing open her front door. Bobby went in and explored. He was travelling in Space, orbiting the planet. "Come in for your tea Bobby!" shouted his Mum, through a pretend radio message...

IT'S A GIANT MOUNTAIN NEXT

Spaceman Bobby descended to Earth, disturbing a brick. The brick fell down the spiral steps, into a pool of water and plopped. A fish came out of the surface to look. pop!
